

Bio for Julie M. Hadnot

Julie Hadnot is the Director of the Alameda County Interagency Children's Policy Council. She has over 24 years of service in the area of community and government relations, having worked as a senior legislative liaison to federal and state legislators. Throughout her tenure in the legislative arena she focused on issues impacting children, youth and families including staffing California's Select Committee on Children's School Readiness and Health. She has served on a number of educational and community service boards and commissions, as well as, mentored young women who are first generation college students. Prior to her role with ICPC, Julie was the Director of Public Affairs for Kaiser Permanente in the East Bay. She holds a B.A. in Political Science from the University of California, Los Angeles and M.A. from Stanford University in Educational Administration and Policy Analysis.